“Determiners are Sumerograms that are not pronounced but indicate the class or nature of a noun for clarity, e.g. in $^{\text{URU}}$Ḫa-at-tu-ša ( ); the URU is a determiner marking the name of a city, and the pronunciation is simply /hattusa/.”

URU ha ad tu sha

In the Hittite capital, = Hattusa, near modern Boğazkale, lots of writing, Keilschriften, was found. Muwatalli II moved the capital to Tarhuntassa. Its location is unknown. Hieroglyphic Luwian: (DEUS)TONITRUS-hu-ta-sá)
