“Determiners are Sumerograms that are not pronounced but indicate the class or nature of a noun for clarity, e.g. in ^{URU} Ha-at-tu-ša (    ); the URU is a determiner marking the name of a city, and the pronunciation is simply /hattusa/.”

In the Hittite capital,      =  Hattusa, near modern  Boğazkale, lots of  writing, Keilschriften, was found.  Muwatalli II moved the capital to  Tarhuntassa. Its location is unknown. Hieroglyphic Luwian:  (DEUS)TONITRUS-hu-ta-sá)
